

Ronnie Mitchell Sr.

December 30, 1945 - December 11, 2013

Ronnie Mitchell Sr. was born December 30, 1945 in Chicago, Illinois to Lawrence James Sr. and Mender Rebecca Mitchell. He was the youngest of four children, Lawrence Jr., Diane and Cynthia.

Ronnie was a loving father of 5, Rita, Renee, Ronnie Jr., Raymous (Rachel) and Marona (Alexis) and was adored by his 14 grandchildren and 15 great grandchildren, who were the light of his life. Ronnie enjoyed singing, family outings and treasured the precious times he spent with his grandchildren and children at the movies.

Ronnie didn't have an extensive secular education, but he placed value in the best education available when he accepted a home Bible study with Jehovah's Witnesses. While studying with Jehovah's Witnesses, Ronnie recognized Bible truths and learned that by applying Bible principles to his life he could change.

Ronnie was able and did make the necessary changes in his life that transformed him and his lifestyle. Ronnie grew to love the Bible truths that he was learning about, cherished and grew to love Jehovah and then expressed that love by symbolizing his dedication by water baptism on February 4, 1990.

On December 11, 2013, Ronnie Mitchell Sr. fell asleep in death. He was preceded in death by his parents and three siblings.

Ronnie leaves to cherish his memories, his 5 children, Rita, Renee, Ronnie Jr., Raymous (Rachel) and Marona (Alexis); 14 grandchildren; 15 great grandchildren; a dear and loving sister-in-law, Rolanda Mitchell; 11 nieces and nephews; and a host of other relatives and friends.
