

Mr. Roosevelt Rodgers

December 24, 1942 - April 22, 2021

Roosevelt Rodgers was born December 24, 1942 in Holmes County, Mississippi to the union of Jonas Rodgers and Vera Jackson Rodgers.

He received his formal education in Mississippi. Roosevelt enjoyed being with his friends playing cards, and riding horses. As a young man he left Mississippi and moved to Chicago, Illinois to pursue a better life. He worked many years for Acid Products Chemical Company.

Roosevelt was outgoing with a great sense of humor. People enjoyed being around him. As his health failed him Roosevelt went to live in a nursing home. However, he did not let life's adversity get him down he was active in and much loved in the nursing homes where he lived.

On April 22, 2021, Roosevelt Rodgers closed his eyes and rested from his labors. He was preceded in death by his parents Jonas Rodgers and Vera Rodgers-Coleman; five brothers Mitchell, Willie Jr., Johnny, Jonas Jr. and Rayford; five sisters Etta, Lela, Fannie, Inez and Johnnie Bee.

Roosevelt leaves to cherish his memories, nine sisters Vera, Mattie, Queen, Earnestine all of Illinois, Edna of Indiana, Eva of Missouri, and Laura, Irene, Viola (Rickey) all of Mississippi; one brother Louis (Diana) of Mississippi; and a host of nieces, nephews and cousins too numerous to mention.
