“ *To the family of Rosa Muhammad, I am deeply sorry about the death of your dear loved one. No matter who we are or where we are, the enemy death hurts and leave an emptiness in our hearts. It is sad to be born into a world of trouble, suffering, illnesses, a short time with those we love, and then death comes. No one wants to die, but the desire to live is within us. Yes, eternity is in our hearts. The Creator has given a earthly home for a family of people to come together in unity in the near future. So death is not the end of it all. And as we take note of the world in which we live, it helps us to know that a change is fast approaching. There is great joy and eye opening blessings extended to each of us.
