

Rose Lee Green

February 4, 1940 - March 15, 2014

Rose Lee Green was born on February 4, 1940 to Thomas Lloyd and Telester Hollister at Cook County Hospital in Chicago, Illinois.

At the tender age of 10, Rose confessed her hope in Christ and was baptized.

Rose was educated in Chicago and spent one year living and attending school in Gary, Indiana. Rosie Lee, as some may know her, started working at about 11 years old in her uncle and mother's restaurant, peeling potatoes.

In the year of 1969, Rose started working at the United States Post Office for about 2 years, and later moved on to the Chicago Housing Authority for 20 years. She retired early in 1991. All of her life she worked hard.

Rose was a very loving, outgoing, carefree spirit. She loved to read, go to thrift stores, and go out to eat. She had a huge heart and was a giving person. She would go out of her way to help others. Throughout her time spent here on earth, Rose Lee Green has touched many lives.

In May of 2013, Rose's health started to decline. On March 15, 2014 at 2:00 p.m., God called his angel, Rose, home. She was preceded in death by her mother, Telester Hollister; her father: Thomas Lloyd; her brother: Emmit Lloyd; and a best friend: Johnnie Ruth Johnson.

Rose will truly be missed by all but leaves to continue her legacy, one daughter: Diane Green; one son: Abenyagah Hlomag (Abey); three granddaughters: Cecilla Green, Teonna Green and Shirley Green; one grandson: Darius Phifer; and a host of other family, extended family and very close friends.

“ To the Green family, I am deeply sorry about the death of your dear loved one. Please take comfort in the promises written in the Bible so that you may be able to endure. Almighty God promised to awaken those asleep in death, to a life of eternal blessings on a paradise earth. That promise is written at John 5:28&29 and at Acts 24:15.
