

Rosemary Bradberry

June 27, 1945 - April 1, 2012

Rosemary Bradberry was born June 27, 1945 to proud parents Ida and Douglas in Chicago, Illinois.

She attended Douglas Elementary and Dunbar High School.

Rosemary confessed Christ at an early age and gave herself to the Lord.

On March 30, 1965, she married Leonard Parks and their union was blessed with five sons. Rose was a loving wife and mother.

Rosemary had a deep love for children so she opened a daycare, Rosemary Angels Nursery. She provided love, instruction and fun for the children in her care. She owned businesses in both Chicago and Atlanta. She only closed her doors when she became too ill to care for her little ones.

Rose relocated to Georgia in 1987, there she met Pasquale Falcone of Covington, GA and the two married.

On April 1, 2012, Rose heard the call "Well done my good and faithful servant", she closed her eyes and took her rest. She was preceded in death by her parents, Ida and Douglas and her siblings, Anne Henry, Carrie Crews and Ida Clay.

Rosemary leaves to mourn her passing and cherish her memories, her loving sons, Darryn L. Parks, Michael (Angela) Parks, Dale Parks, Eric (Yolanda) Parks and Deon Parks; ten beautiful grandchildren, Tiffany M. Parks, Tiara N. Parks, Elicia Parks, Temprance R. Parks, Michael A. Parks III, Tori C. Parks, Malique A. Parks, Mason A. Parks, Eric M. Dickson and Timothy D. Dickson; three great grandchildren, Madison K. Shegog, Jalen Parks, and Xzion Parks; her sisters, Mable Bradberry, Patty Johnson and Marla Gibbs; her brother, Raymond Bradberry; and a host of other relatives and friends.
