

Rosemary M. McKnight

July 22, 1950 - July 30, 2014

Rosemary M. McKnight was born on July 22, 1950 to the loving parents of Andrew Davis and Mary McKnight in Chicago, Illinois. She was the first of seven children.

Raised in Chicago, Rosemary received her formal education in the Chicago Public School System, attending Stephen A. Douglas Elementary School and Wendell Phillips High School. After graduating high school she attended college for 2 years.

Rosemary joined the working class finding employment at the United States Postal Service, where she retired after 22 years of service.

Rosemary was a very loving, caring, patient and dear mother, especially when it came to her only son, Edward. Being very family-oriented, quality time spent with those she loved was the most important factor in her life. To show she cared no matter when or where, Rosemary was always there with her "camera" for family and friends.

On July 30, 2014 at Mercy Hospital, Rosemary was called home to rest from her labor. She was preceded in death by her parents, Andrew Davis and Mary McKnight; two brothers, Clemmie "Bill" and Bobby; one sister, Juanita (Samuel); and the love of her life, Edward "Red Dawg" Brown.

Rosemary leaves to cherish her loving memories; her devoted son, Edward; two sisters, Barbara Jean (James) and Vanessa (Greg); two brothers, Leon (Carolyn) and Andrew (Shirley); three sisters-in-law, Nethress, Doris and Mary; two special devoted life long friends, Annie Upchurch and Diane Grady; and a host of loving nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
