June 29, 1937 - January 20, 2016

Rosie Lee Gaines was born to Anise Elijah Sprouts Sr. and Rosetta Sprouts on June 29, 1937.

Rosie confessed Christ to be her personal Lord and Savior at an early age under the leadership of the late Pastor Nash of Mount Nebo Missionary Baptist Church in York Town, Arkansas. She and her family later moved to Pine Bluff, AR, where she joined the Gospel Temple M. B. Church under the leadership of the late Pastor Shavers. She later moved to Chicago, Illinois where she became a member of St. Joseph M.B. Church under the leadership of the late Pastor W. C. Fields, where she was a faithful choir member.

In 1974, Rosie united in holy matrimony to her husband, Herbert Gaines. She was a loving and faithfully devoted wife for over 42 years.

Rosie was a loyal employee of the Hamilton Lamp Company and served as a Union Steward until the day she retired.

In 1997, Rosie joined True Redemption Gospel Church under the leadership of Pastor W. Stubbs, and served on the Mother's Board and as a Praise Service Leader. Rosie loved to sing and was a dedicated member of the Senior Suites of Auburn, a choir in her residential building. Rosie loved the Lord and sought every opportunity to give Him praise and be His faithful servant.

On January 20, 2016, Rosie Lee Gaines departed this earthly life. She was preceded in death by her parents, Anise Elijah Sprouts Jr. and Rosetta Sprouts; two sisters, Freddie Benton and Mozella Orr; and a niece she helped raised as her own, Delores Faye Orr.
