

Roxie Ann Perrymon

January 23, 1943 - February 2, 2016

Roxie Ann Perrymon was born on January 23, 1943 in Prentiss, Mississippi to Ace and Doreatha Mikell.

Roxie and her husband Willie moved to Chicago, Illinois in 1965 and in 1966 they moved to the suburbs where she learned about Jehovah.

After a study of God's word, Roxie dedicated her life to Jehovah and symbolized her dedication through water baptism on January 20, 1973, becoming one of Jehovah's Witnesses. Roxie served as a regular pioneer with the Robbins, Illinois congregation as well as the Dryads and Lake Forest congregations in New Orleans, Louisiana and more recently she served faithfully as a pioneer with the Blue Island, Illinois congregation until her death.

Roxie had an amazing sense of humor. She enjoyed cooking, baking and shopping. She especially enjoyed talking about Jehovah's arrangements and was always concerned about proclaiming the good news about his Messianic kingdom.

Roxie leaves to cherish her memory, her husband, Willie A. Perrymon; her daughter, Jacqueline A. Johnson (Robert); sisters, Gloria Jean, Theresa; and a host of nephews, nieces, other relatives and a large extended theocratic family.
