December 30, 1921 - January 31, 2013

Ryan C. Thompson Jr. was born on December 30, 1921 to the union of Marie Butler Thompson and Ryan Thompson Sr.

Ryan attended and graduated from Englewood High School. He then went on to attend Wilson Junior College.

Ryan began his career as a working man, by first joining the Chicago Police Department in the early 50's. After leaving the police department, Ryan worked for the Wilson Trucking Company as a truck driver.

While at work as a police officer, Ryan met the love of his life, Lillian. Instead of giving her a parking ticket, he asked her out. A courtship ensued and the two united in holy matrimony. This loving union lasted 56 years and 3 days.

Ryan studied God's word the Bible, dedicated his life to Jehovah and symbolized his dedication through water baptism. He truly loved Jehovah and cared for his sheep greatly. Ryan preached the good news of God's Kingdom to all he came in contact with.

On January 30, 2013, Ryan fell asleep in death. He was preceded in death by his parents, Marie and Ryan Sr.

Ryan leaves to cherish his memories, his loving and devoted wife, Lillian; his son, Ryan III; his daughter, Terrye; his aunt, Ethel; and a host of other relatives and friends. His loving presence will be missed by many.
