

S.B. Sullivan

May 21, 1941 - June 7, 2014

S. B. Sullivan was born on May 21, 1941 to the union of Joe and Ella Sullivan in Nesbitt, Mississippi. He was one of eight children.

At an early age, S.B. gave his life to God, was baptized and joined Dean's Hill Baptist Church in Nesbitt, MS. He began preaching and sang gospel music. He loved God and singing and continued with both all of his days. His love of God and acquiring more knowledge led him to study the Bible with Jehovah's Witnesses, in his later years.

Singing was high on S.B.'s life choices and he was part of a singing group named the Jaspereers.

On Saturday, June 7, 2014, S.B. Sullivan fell asleep in death. He was preceded in death by his parents, Joe and Ella Sullivan; three brothers, Joe Ellis (Esther) Sullivan, Darnell Sullivan and Sylvester Sullivan; one sister, C.W. Washington; his wife, Leona Sullivan, one son, John Lewis; one son-in-law, Titus.

S.B. Sullivan leaves to cherish his loving memories, his children, Katherine Jones (Melvin), Eddie Sullivan, Felicia Sullivan, Reginald Sullivan, Torrence Sullivan and Linda Terry; three sisters, Birdie Graham-Johnson, Mary E. Scott and Rosie Lee Jones; and a host of grandchildren, great grandchildren, nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
