

Mr. Sammy Lowery

May 12, 1954 - September 25, 2021

Sammy Lowery Jr. was born May 12, 1954, in Alligator, Mississippi.

In 1958, Sammy's family moved from the south to Ford Heights, Illinois, to find a better life. He was the second oldest of five children. Being the oldest boy, Sammy felt that it was his responsibility to protect and look after his siblings. He was an authoritative yet loving big brother throughout his childhood and adulthood life.

Sammy went on to graduate from Bloom Trail High School and later took up a trade in carpentry.

Sammy was never afraid to venture out and try new things, but what he was the most passionate about remodeling, and repairing cars. He loved listening to all types of music, but Bobby Blue Bland and the blues was one of his favorites. He also loved playing cards and hanging out with family and friends.

Sammy attended Sunday School and later gave his life to Christ in 1963 at First Missionary Baptist Church in Ford Heights under the late Rev. Iron.

Sammy met the love of his life in the summer of 1969. Their love for each other led them to unite in marriage in 1973 and start their own family.

Sammy worked many years and countless jobs to support his family. He later found a company that he enjoyed working for around August of 2000, at Great Lake Meat Packing Company where he ended his career in April of 2011.

Sammy departed his life in September 24, 2021. He was loved and well respected as a man who spoke his mind and had it his way or no way. He was preceded his in death, by his mother and father.
