

Samuel J. Stewart

October 27, 1950 - July 4, 2014

Samuel J. Stewart was born October 27, 1950 to the union of Miles and Isabell Stewart. He was second of five children born to the couple.

He graduated from St. James Roman Catholic School and Wendell Phillips High School.

As a child, Sam loved taking apart toy trucks, cars, electric trains and anything mechanical, "just to see how they worked", was his reply. When asked "Why did you do that?" He was always able to put the toys back together. This ability led him to Lincoln Tech's Automotive School where he earned a degree in Automotive Repair and became a Master Mechanic. For the last two decades, he worked as the Lead Mechanic at Irwin's Auto Repair.

Sam united in holy matrimony to Juanita McKnight and to this union three sons were born, Clifford McKnight, Sterling McKnight and Samuel McKnight Jr.

Samuel Stewart was called home to be with his Heavenly Father. He was preceded in death by two siblings, Isabell and Robert; his wife, Juanita; and one son, Samuel Jr.

Sam leaves to cherish his memories and continue his legacy, two sons,

Clifford (Shayla) McKnight and Sterling McKnight; one daughter-in-law, Rekeia; one sister, Thermer Watts; one brother, David Stewart; his eldest nephew, Jimmie (Barbara) Watts; nieces, Lashawn, Clementine, Angela and Sabrina; and a host of other relatives and friends.
