

Sarah Ann Ratliffe

February 8, 1941 - October 2, 2019

Sarah Ann Ratliffe was born on February 8, 1941 to Henry and Bessie Ratliffe. While she never married, she had two beautiful children Dwain Ratliffe and Yolanda Ratliffe. She also added to her family in 2018 an adopted son Jeremiah Ellzey-Ratliffe.

She made her home in Chicago, Illinois. She pursued career as a public servant but working for the City of Chicago for 39 1/2 years with the Illinois Department of Human Services and the Chicago Police Department before retiring on June 30, 2007.

Although she was a very private person, she loved her family and friends very much. In to 2018, she was diagnosed with non-small cell adenocarcinoma of the lung. She didn't wish to burden or worry anyone, so she kept silent to meet until Mother's Day of 2019. She had begun to undergo treatment and only wanted to be remembered at her best.

On October 2, 2019, she passed away, finally pain-free. She is preceded in death by her parents, sister Olivia, and her daughter Yolanda.

Sarah is survived by, her brother William Henry Bradley Ratliffe; her sons Dwain and Jeremiah; granddaughter and her name sake Sarah Ann Ratliffe II; nieces Elizabeth Ellzey Banks, and Limiel Ellzey; nephews Marvin Hullon

Ellzey Jr. Elzhi and Clyde Maurice Ellzey; a great niece; her closest friends Joyce Watson and Harriet Davis; as well as many other family members and dear friends.
