

Sean Winston Black

May 5, 1972 - August 3, 2012

Sean Winston Black was born in Chicago, Illinois on May 5, 1972 to the union of Willie Homer and Debra Vera Black. Sean was the eldest of their four sons. He was always the big brother they could look to for guidance and help.

Sean graduated from Whitney M. Young High School in 1990. In 2007, he graduated from Kennedy King College with an Associate's Degree in Nursing. He worked long and hard in a field that he truly loved and had a passion in caring for people until his illness.

Sean was introduced to the truth by the loving example of his grandmother, Ella Riley. This led him to dedicate his life to serve Jehovah in December of 1990. He served as a regular pioneer for many years and was privileged to attend the 29th Class of the Ministerial Training School in 1996. He was thereafter, assigned to serve as an elder in various congregations in the Chicagoland area. With an in-depth insight of the Holy Scriptures and always a "Sean Black Story" to tell, he encouraged many and proved to be a true friend throughout the years.

On August 23, 1997, Sean married the love of his life, Bernadette Dockery. Together they raised their beautiful daughter Ma'Tia.

After a lengthy illness, Sean fell asleep in death on August 3, 2012 with his family at his side. He is preceded in death by his father and father-in-law, Raymond Dockery, Sr.

Sean leaves to cherish his precious memories, Bernadette, his devoted wife of 14 years; one daughter, Ma'Tia Black; his loving mother, Debra; his mother-in-law, Claudette; four brothers, Nicholas (September), Willie Aaron "baby bro", Johnathan and Kevin; brothers-in-law, Hernandez (Teena), Raymond Jr. (Soyraya) and Maurice (Monique); a dear sister, Kione Abraham; and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, and many spiritual family and friends.

Hello Debra Black I'm so sorry for the loss of your son. I know there no words that I can say to bring him back. But I do know you had a beautiful son who had a big heart and genuinely cared for people. I just wanted to remind you that I'm still praying for you & your family to endure the best way you can. Remember we serve a JUSTICE GOD who will in due time reverse all pain & suffering and called out all those in his book of record all those in the memorial tombs. A day at last!!!!!!!!!! Hang in there my dear sister & know my family & I are hoping each day gets better for you!!!!!!!!!! Love you!
