

Mrs. ShaParis Shatrice Moore

December 4, 1999 - September 10, 2021

ShaParis Shatrice Moore, also known as “Peka”, to friends and family was born on December 4, 1999 to her mother Laparis Porter and her father Shantell Porter.

ShaParis grew up on the westside of Chicago. Raised by a single mother and the second oldest among eight children. Despite many obstacles in her short time on this earth, that is where she developed her strong will, determination, and desire to care for others.

ShaParis met James Moore in December of 2017, where they fell in love and were married shortly after in March of 2018. A symbol of their love was put on display with the birth of their beautiful daughter Natalie Symone Jasmine Moore.

Despite her opposition and not graduating from High School, that didn't stop her dedication and determination from furthering her education and career. She went on to get her GED, CNA, and Phlebotomist license, before her untimely and unexpected passing, in pursuit of her dream of becoming a registered nurse.

With an outgoing personality, a heart of gold and a self-sacrificing love, ShaParis always went through life looking for the good in others. Her caring spirit shined through in the way she cared for the elderly and infirmed at her everyday job, and the way she cared for and doted on her husband and daughter despite her own fears and insecurities.

On September 10, 2021, this beautiful earthly angel finally found her peace.
