

Sharon Davis

August 14, 1966 - December 31, 2015

Sharon Davis was born on August 14, 1966 in Chicago, Illinois to Homer and Catherine. She was the youngest of four children.

Sharon believed that Christ was her savior and was baptized at a young age.

Her education started at Holmes Elementary School where she graduated from, she then attended John Hope Middle School and later attended Tilden High School.

Sharon was known as Tang. She was a very lively and sociable person. She met friends easily due to her personality. Wherever she went it was easy for her to attract people. She loved children, however, never bore any of her own. She also loved her family and often came around to check on them in her healthier days. She loved to cook and do word search puzzles. Sometimes you might even find her reading a romance novel. Whenever she cooked she would invite family and friends over. She was a very giving person, she would share whatever she had.

On Thursday, December 31, 2015, Sharon departed this life at the age of 49, due to illness. She was preceded in death by her mother, Catherine; father, Homer; and brother, Larry.

Sharon leaves to cherish her memories, significant other, Carlos Lopez-Vasquez; two siblings, Debra Davis and Darryl (Kimberly) Davis; two nephews, Nathaniel Sharp and Key won Davis; two nieces, Luevetra Davis and Keyuanna; one aunt, Mildred Davis (her mother's sister); first cousins she was close to, Annette Loggin, Frank (Florence) Trussel, Barbara Trussel, April Killiebrew, Valerie Burles and Leonardo Loggin (special cousin); special friends, Tina and Frank; and a host of other relatives and friends.
