

Sharon Joy White-Fuller

December 21, 1951 - August 6, 2015

Sharon Joy White-Fuller was born to the union of Walter and Pearl White on December 21, 1951 in Chicago, Illinois. She was the fourth child of five children.

Sharon attended elementary schools in Chicago Heights and was a graduate of Bloom Township High School. She also attended John D'Amico Beauty Culture School.

Sharon confessed her life to Christ at an early age and was baptized at Calvary Missionary Baptist Church under the late Reverend J. Gentry Horace. She later moved her membership to New Hope Baptist Church under the pastorate of the late Reverend W.H. Sherrod Sr. where she sang in the choir. Her membership and love of New Hope Baptist Church continued under the pastoral care of Bishop Mathew H. Amos.

Sharon had outstanding work ethics. Her career started at Johnson and Johnson and she worked at the Ludeman Center until she became ill. Sharon also did hair as a side job. She had a sense of humor, she kept us laughing. She loved to read books by her favorite authors Stephen King and James Patterson. She was also an avid bid whiz card player. Sharon would always say that she put the "B" in bid whiz.

Sharon married her teenage sweetheart, Claude Giles Sr. To this union three children were born. In her early adult years, she later met and married Michael Fuller, her soul mate and the love of her life. Michael took very good care of her until her untimely death. Sharon made her transition on August 6, 2015. She was preceded in death by her father, Walter White Sr.

Sharon is survived by her loving husband, Michael; two daughters, Journey Shauna "Niecy" Wilson and Angel Sharece Giles; one son, Claude Giles Jr. (Tania); mother, Pearl L. White; four sisters, Mary Helen Street, Sylvia White, Juanita Sweatt and Patricia Anne Young; two brothers, Walter White Jr. and Nathaniel White (Tawania); seven grandsons, Aaron, Michael, Jaylen, Ethan, Logan, Christian and Eli; three granddaughters, Dajia, Tyler and Melia; a special uncle, Henry White; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
