

Sherman Briggs Sr.

December 26, 1940 - December 5, 2016

Sherman Briggs Sr. was born December 26, 1940 to Charlie T. Turner and Sherman Briggs in Clarksdale, Mississippi.

Sherman attended Cohoma Agriculture High School in Clarksdale, MS. He was a loving husband and father. He was an entrepreneur and always had his own business.

Sherman diligently studied the Bible with Jehovah's Witnesses and dedicated his life to Jehovah, the God he loved at the age of 34. The work that made him the happiest was working for Jehovah. He sacrificed personal interest to volunteer his time teaching people the truth about his God Jehovah and his kingdom.

On March 13, 2001, Sherman united in marriage with Irish Henry, whom he dearly loved and remained married to until his death.

On Monday, December 5, 2016, Sherman fell asleep in death. He is preceded in death. By his mother, Charlie T. Burton; his father, Sherman Briggs; two daughters, Verline and Angela; two sons, Brian Keith and Brennan; his siblings, Lil Belle, Jimmie Lee, Richard and Johnny; and one brother-in-law, J.C.

Sherman leaves to cherish his memories, his loving wife, Irish Briggs; five children, Yolanda (Lester), Trease, Chervelle, Sherman Jr. and Jan Patrick (Vanessa); 15 siblings, Ruby (David), Chris, Jason (Ann), David, Edward, Diane (Walter), Johnny Ruth (Bobby), Rosie Lee (Clearance), Louise, Mae Frances, Gertrude, Fannie Lee, Tyrone (Valencia), LeeRoy and Danny; and a host of grandchildren, great grandchildren, nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, other relatives and countless friends.
