

Sue Alice Spencer

August 13, 1922 - August 20, 2015

Sue Alice Spencer was born August 13, 1922 to David and Annabelle Petty in New Market, Alabama.

Sue's family moved to Chicago, Illinois where she completed her formal education through the Chicago Public School System. In 1948, she attended the Illinois School of Nursing and became a Licensed Practical Nurse (LPN).

Sue united in marriage with Charles Spencer.

Sue enjoyed helping others even letting them stay temporarily in her home. She was known by all, both young and old, as "Aunt Sue". She had a fondness for animals particularly cats, who would wait every morning at her back door for their breakfast.

On August 20, 2015, Sue Alice Spencer fell asleep in death, with her nieces, Casandra Petty and sister-in-law, Dorothy Petty by her side at Roseland Hospital. She was preceded in death by her parents, David and Annabelle Petty; her husband, Charles Spencer; and two brothers, James Petty and David Petty.

Sue leaves to cherish her memories, daughter, Anna Rhodes and her children, Dontrell, DeAnna and DeAnte; daughter, Sue Ellen Rhodes her son, Brandon and her step-daughter, Alberta Tucker; her aunt, Cynthia Fowler; nephew, David (Betty) Petty and his children, Crystal, Dyana, David IV and Quincy; niece, Casandra Petty; cousin, Thelma Marks and her children, Glenn, Gwendolyn, Lonnie, Wayne, Michael and Ronald; cousins, James Drake and William Wiggins Jr.; and a host of other relatives and friends.
