

Tanana Brown-Taylor

October 24, 1970 - February 26, 2016

Tanana Brown-Taylor was born on September 24, 1970 in Chicago, Illinois to Willie and Thomasine Porter. Tanana received her formal education from the Chicago Public School System.

Tanana married Maxie Taylor Jr. and they were blessed with three boys, Maxie Taylor III, Shaquille Taylor, and Juawann Taylor. Her illness caused her to spend a lot of time in the hospital but her determination was to see her little boys become men and she fought everyday to be a kind and loving mother. Her love was taking care of her children, dressing her boys and cleaning her home, she modeled herself after Proverbs 31 and was a capable wife and mother.

Tanana loved God. As a young woman her love of God led her to study the Bible with Jehovah's Witnesses. After a thorough study of the Bible she dedicated herself to Jehovah and symbolized that dedication through water baptism. She looked forward to the day when no resident will say I am sick.

On February 26, 2016, Tanana fell asleep in death. She was preceded in death by one brother, Rodney Brown.

Tanana leaves to cherish her memory, three sons, Maxie III, Shaquille and Juwann; three grandchildren, Jamaya, Shaniyah and Ashton; parents, Willie and Thomasine Porter; brothers, Ricky (Sherry), Craig (Shirley) and Donald; sister, Stacey; nieces, Ahniyah, Adrieanna, Meshia and Natosha; nephews, Ricky Jr., Marcus and Dominick; a special cousin, Annette; and a host of relatives and friends too numerous to mention.
