

Tanuel Major

December 15, 1968 - November 19, 2018

Tanuel Major was born December 15, 1968 in Chicago, Illinois to the union of Amanda and LeAndrew Major. She was one of four children to bless this union. Tanuel was a phenomenal big sister putting the needs of her siblings before her own and nurturing them as only a big sister can do. She provided an example to follow in love, family and devotion to care.

Tanuel received her formal education in -Chicago, Illinois. As a young adult she moved to California and continued her education. Her love of people led her to pursue a career in medicine.

Tanuel was blessed with two children Tyler and Tabbie. She enjoyed being a mom. She was a momma bear, ferocious in her devotion and zealous in her pursuit of excellence for her children needs. Her love of her children knew no bounds. She worked hard to give her children a firm education and spiritual foundation enabling them to have the academic tools to pursue all their dreams. Tanuel Major was smart and resourceful. She worked as a clerical worker in the financial field to care for her family.

On November 19, 2018, Tanuel Major fell asleep on death. She was preceded in death by her father LeAndrew, and brother Charles Major.

Tanuel will be missed by her children Tyler, and Tabbie; mother Amanda; siblings Amanda Butcher (Dion), Terry Major (Enako), Winter Major, and Andre Hampton; and a host of uncles, aunts, and cousins too numerous to mention.

“ To the Major family and the friends of Taniel Major:

I just now came across this news of your beloved's untimely passing. My heart goes out to you all and I hope that there will be justice for you all for your unfortunate loss. I live in the Evanston community, and was shocked to see postings of this terrible incident which claimed Taniel's life. Be ever comforted in the knowledge that her life was not in vain. Those she left behind are a testimony to the life that she lived. No one should ever have to go through this, but know that the Evanston community shares your grief. Take care of one another and keep your heads up as much as that is possible through all of this.

Hi Tabbie

I met your mom early in her pregnancy with you. We would talk for hours on the phone. She loved to meet different people, travel and yearned to return to school. So it does not surprise me she chose a campus in Evanston to bed down at night.

I hope they apprehend the person who snuck up on her while she was sleeping. She was outspoken and a fighter. I'm surprised and saddened that she underestimated the person who attacked her. I believe she had a confrontation with that person previous to the attack. My condolences also to your grandmother, and Aunts.

Sorry I didn't get to meet you. I'm glad she was able to experience your early years. Tell Tyler, my daughter and I say hello. Teresa
