

Taylor William Irving

June 13, 1924 - November 25, 2012

Taylor William Irving was born on June 13, 1924 to the union of William and Lillian Irving in Argo, Illinois. Taylor was the third of four children.

Taylor attended Argo Grammar School. He was a self-taught carpenter as well as an exterminator. He was also well known for having a pretty good eye for antique furniture and jewelry.

Taylor met Catherine M. Brown and it was love at first sight. On August 9, 1963, they were married. Even though no children were born in this union, Catherine had a son whom Taylor felt was his own. Taylor and Catherine lived in Harvey, IL for more than 20 years. As those years passed by, Taylor was known as "BUZZ" to all his friends there in Harvey.

Taylor wasn't big on religion, but he believed in God and read his Bible. His favorite verse was Psalm 23.

On November 25, 2012 at 6:40 a.m., the Lord called Taylor home while he slept. He was preceded in death by the love of his life, his wife of 24 years of marriage, Catherine Irving; his parents, William and Lillian Irving; two sisters, Willietta Wilkerson and Olga Gage Johnson; two nephews, Harold Gage and Lawrence Gage; and his sister-in-law, Alma Irving.

Taylor leaves to cherish his loving memories, his brother, William Irving; and a host of nieces, nephews, great nieces and nephews, great-great nieces and nephews, neighbors and many friends.
