

Teena M. Miller-Wilson

August 12, 1947 - May 15, 2014

Teena M. Miller-Wilson was born on August 12, 1947 in Chicago, Illinois. She was the last of three children born to the union of Howard and Naomi Miller.

Teena graduated from Dunbar Vocational High School on Chicago's south side. She worked for over twenty years at Western Electric where she met and married Tommy P. Parr in 1970. To that union was born one child, Tasha Renee Parr. Teena later married James Wilson.

From her teen years, Teena was always searching spiritually for Bible truth. She found that truth by studying with Jehovah's Witnesses and she dedicated her life to Jehovah God in 1986. She was known for her zealous service to Jehovah. She was a full-time Pioneer for more than 23 years. She attended Pioneer School twice and was scheduled to attend for a third time on May 19th before her sudden passing.

On the morning of May 15, 2014, Teena fell asleep in death. She was preceded in death by her mother and father, Naomi and Howard Miller; her brother, Howard Jr.; her aunt, Elizabeth Henry; uncles, Earl and Charles Ruffin; and cousins, Howard Bell and Arthur Rucks.

She leaves to mourn, her one daughter, Tasha Parr Swain, and her husband, William Swain; one sister, Sandra Fleming; one niece, Bianca Contreras; two nephews, Jermel Fleming and Michael Fleming; one great niece, Dominique Green; one great nephew, Christian Contreras; one great-great nephew, Joseph Green; and cousins, Marie Bell, John Henry, Gwendolyn Dantzler, Sydnee Bell, Felicia Bell, Andrew Mitchell and Cartier Lopez; and a host of friends.

She will be greatly missed.

“ I didn't have the privilege to know Sis. Miller-Wilson, however, I'd like to share a few bible scriptures that helped me after the loss of both my husband and son, in June of 2013. Please read: John 5:28,29; Eccl 9:5,6 and 10 and Rev 21:3,4.
