

Theresa Odessa Williams

February 17, 1937 - July 18, 2017

Theresa Odessa Williams was born February 17, 1937 in Chicago Illinois to the union of Andrew and Savannah Williams Sr. Theresa, one of ten children to this union, grew up on the south side of Chicago in the Morgan Park area.

Theresa was a loving mother to her sons Vernon and James. She provided for her family both materially and spiritually.

Her love of God led her to study the Bible with Jehovah's Witnesses. After a thorough study of the Bible, she dedicated her life to Jehovah and symbolized her dedication through water baptism on December 31, 1966. Heeding the Bible's counselor Matthew 28:19, to go make disciples, Sister Williams became a regular pioneer in 1976 and served faithfully for over 41 years. Her zeal for Jehovah was infectious in the congregation, from her unfailing meeting attendance to her well thought out comments.

Having herself visited many times, Theresa was the unofficial tour guide for Bethel. She encouraged everyone to visit God's house and take their children. She explained it was a life changing experience that would plant the seeds of strong spiritually mature brothers and sisters and fortify you for a life time of service in Jehovah's organization.

On July 18, 2017, Theresa Odesa Williams fell asleep in death. She was preceded in death by her father, Andrew Williams Sr.; mother, Savannah Williams; six brothers, Homer, Andrew, Luscious, Hubert, Clarence and Ulysses; and three sisters, Gertrude, Alberta and Dorothy.

Theresa leaves to cherish her memories, two sons, Vernon Gene and James (Cynthia); four grandchildren, Veronica (Tommie), Jason, Christopher and Joseph (Shonte); and a host of great grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and dear friends.
