

Thressie Polk

February 9, 1944 - July 12, 2023

Thressie Polk was born in Little Rock, Arkansas on February 9, 1944 to the proud parents of Permaren and O.D. Reed. She was the oldest of 10. Thressie was young when the family moved to Chicago. She received her formal education in the Chicago Public School System graduating from Dusable High School..

Thressie married Johnny Polk Sr. On September 26, 1965 and to that union four children were born Johnny, Roger, Antoinette and Shante. After a study of the Bible with Jehovah's Witnesses Thressie dedicated her life to Jehovah and symbolized her dedication thru water baptism on November 6, 1977. She pioneered for many years and enjoyed commenting and participating in all the congregation meetings.

Thressie had the pleasure of serving in customer service to a lot of companies but the one she enjoyed the most was Old National Bank. She started working there in 1989. Her customers loved her energy, conversation and most of all her beautiful smile. She retired from Old National Bank on January 30, 2017.

Thressie was a very straightforward person. She didn't believe in biting her tongue. she as a loving and outgoing mother to all she came in contact with. Thressie loved going out in field service, shopping and spending time with her family especially her grandchildren.
