

Vera Wright-Dabney

August 14, 1966 - July 9, 2016

Vera "Dee-Dee" Wright-Dabney was born to the union of Robert and Earthine Wright on August 14, 1966.

Vera received her formal education through the Chicago Public School system, attending grammar school and high school. She went on to attend Pivot Point Cosmetology School. She went on to practice cosmetology for several years.

Vera spent most of her time with her children and grandchildren. She enjoyed her family. She loved to sing, dance and laugh. She enjoyed cooking and getting her family together while being the life of the party.

Vera could light up a room with her beautiful smile. Her ray of light shined on everyone she encountered. Vera's big heart held a close place for all friends and family. Her long time friends were Faye, Tara, Wendy, Maisha and Tammy.

Vera began studying to be a Jehovah's Witness, she enjoyed reading publications to her youngest son. Her favorite chapter in the Bible was the 27th Psalm. She also enjoyed watching and sharing videos from JW.org.

On July 9, 2016, after remaining strong and holding on to God's promises, Vera fell asleep in death. She was preceded in death by her mother, Earthine and her sister, Edith (Robby).

Vera leaves to cherish her loving memories, her father, Robert; her children, Camille (Donnell), Ashley, Robert and Jordan and was a second mother to Aysha; her grandchildren, Donnell "DJ", Sinatra, Zariyah and Chase; her siblings, Robin, Dexter (Marie), Ralph (LaShon), Wilfred (Jocelyn), Gilbert (Janice) and Juanita (Paul); and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends too numerous to mention.
