

Vincent Tyler

May 18, 1970 - July 8, 2016

Vincent Jerome Tyler was born May 18, 1970 in Chicago, Illinois to Billie K. Tyler and Nathaniel Washington.

Vincent attended Whitney Young High School where he was a part of the Dolphins swim team and where he excelled academically. While attending college he studied Psychology.

Many people may remember Vincent as a Counselor. Vince loved meeting new people often finding it easy to make friends with his brimming confidence. He was very forthright, caring, and accepting. He would give his last dollar if it would help. Vincent encouraged people to pursue education and their dreams. He would also tell you, "whatever you do have confidence".

Vincent would brag about his good looks and body, saying he should've been a model. Vincent loved superheroes. He was that to many as he spread his message of love to everyone he met. He always lived for the positive side of things even after his hip surgeries, battling HIV and cancer.

On July 8, 2016, Vincent made his peace and transitioned. He will join grandmother Victoria Jones, uncle Sonny Tyler, cousin Ron "Diamond" Tyler, aunt Wilma and countless other ancestors.

Vincent leaves to cherish his memories, his mother, Billie Kay; his father,

Nathaniel; his sister, Oyabiyi (Nyansanu and Osunbanke); his nephew, Dadavi (Tyler); and 12 other nieces and nephews; his best friends, Darryl (Colin), Morris, Johnnie and Randall; his aunts, Ruby (William), Harriet "Ann" (Duane), Gladys "Jean" (Arthur), Kimberly "Kim", Ernestine (Lorenzo) and Emma Louis "Pumpkin"; his uncles, John "J.C." (Shantell), Freddie (Linda), Robert "Bobby" (Pam), Ruben "Junior", Van and Lynard; his countless cousins and grandmother, Emmanuel; and a host of friends.

Remember to smile, love and live. That's the message Vince shared with everybody.
