

Virginia Lee Dawkins

February 13, 1943 - June 4, 2013

Virginia Lee Dawkins was born Virginia Lee King on February 13, 1943 in Omaha, Nebraska. As a young girl, her family moved to Chicago, Illinois.

While growing up in Chicago, Virginia received her education at Forrestville Elementary and Dunbar High School, graduating in 1961. After high school she began working at the parking garage located at Dearborn and Randolph. She later worked at Cook County Hospital Fantus Clinic as a records clerk. After 25 years of loyal service she retired.

Virginia had a heart of gold. Her great joy was giving to and doing for others. She never met an enemy. She met Herman Dawkins at the age of 13, the man of her life. They later married, spending 45+ years together. Her dreams, hopes and desires were not complicated. She loved her family and cared for friends and colleagues. She shall be missed!

Virginia leaves leaves to cherish her memories, her best and beloved friend, Jaquelyn Odin; her favorite cousin, Mr. Esse Franklin; her nephews, Donald King, Derek King and Andrew Horton; her nieces, Sharon Griffin, Dawn King and Danuelle King; her cousins of the Mints/Huddleston Clan; her uncle and aunt, Clear and Doris Huddleston; and a host of colleagues, friends and neighbors all of whom were touched by her love and kindness.

“ To the family and friends of Virginia Lee Dawkins, please accept sincere condolences during this time of grief. Death is an enemy that takes those we love, leaving much pain and emptiness. The Sovereign Lord Jehovah promised to remove the pain, sickness and death from among mankind. (Revelation 21:4) Even the resurrection of those asleep in the memorial tombs will be a reality to those faithful and obedient. (John 5:28&29)
