

Wavey Jean Green

August 18, 1931 - December 5, 2014

Wavey Jean Green was born on August 18, 1931 in Memphis, Tennessee to Mae B. Carter and OD Smith. She was the baby girl of six children.

Wavey united in marriage with John E. Green. To this union, nine wonderful children were born, six daughters and three sons. She was a loving, kind hearted and devoted mother and grandmother, who instilled strong family values in both her children and grandchildren. Along with being a wonderful mother, she was a loving and exceptional grandmother and great grandmother.

Wavey was the pillar of her community and known as an advisor. She was a kind and compassionate neighbor and a true friend. As the sole foundation of her family, Wavey, was that rock that will never be replaced.

Wavey had a great love for Jehovah God and his promise of a resurrection to mankind. (Acts 24:15) She was an avid Bible reader and a spiritual woman.

On December 5, 2014, Wavey Jean Green fell asleep in death. She was preceded in death by her parents; five siblings; three daughters, Shirley, Effie and Lucy; and two sons, Lee Thomas and Paris.

Wavey leaves to cherish her memories, three daughters and one son, Ethel

(Clarence) Armour, Wilma Green, John Green and Nancy Green; 15 grandchildren, Tone, Christopher, Michael, Myiesha, Frances, Marc, Dana, Allan, Dustin, Nick, Ashley, Nate, Brittany, Angel and Melody; 25 great grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends too numerous to mention.
