

Mr. William Earl McCray

August 12, 1954 - August 30, 2021

William Earl McCray was the 3rd child born of 11, on August 12th, 1954 in Chicago, Illinois.

Will attended Chicago Public Schools and graduated from Harper High School. Will furthered his education attending and graduating from Arizona State University earning a Bachelor Degree.

Will was very athletic and loved playing Baseball. He loved his favorite SouthSide Baseball team the Chicago White Sox, watching old western movies and his favorite day time show Judge Judy.

Will was a hard worker and held a variety of physical employment. Will was quiet, reserved, soft spoken and had a great sense of humor. He was a giver and loved hard to anyone who got to know him.

Will was very proud to have been raised on 72nd Street. Will would always come back home to 72nd St and have a Big BBQ for his birthday every August particularly at his Best Friend home.

Will departed this earthly realm and transitioned to the spiritual realm to be with the Lord on August 30th, 2021, peacefully in his sleep. Will was preceded in death by his parents, one sister and three brothers.
