

Mr. William Henry McIntosh Jr.

July 26, 1949 - September 4, 2022

William Henry McIntosh Jr., better known as “Junior,” was born on July 26, 1949 in Greenwood, Mississippi, to Lucille and William McIntosh Sr.

He lived the early parts of adulthood in Milwaukee, Wisconsin and later settled in Chicago, Illinois. Junior attended and graduated from Englewood High School and later enrolled at DeVry Institute of Technology. He received a degree in Computer Information Systems. Junior enlisted in the United States Army. Upon returning home from his deployment, he met and married the love of his life, Sandra Dixon McIntosh. From this union a daughter was born: Tammie Dixon.

Junior had several hobbies. He had a passion for reading, specifically science fiction books and comic books. He was a strategist who was always ready for a game of chess with family, friends, or strangers. Junior was quite the musician and enjoyed playing the guitar and harmonica. He was a connoisseur of wine and enjoyed laughing and joking with family. Additionally, Junior was an avid bike rider who kept his thin frame by using his bike as his primary mode of transportation around the city.

Junior had a diverse career in several industries. He was a serviceman in the United States Army for many years. He was also a professional painter for several years. The one job that was pure enjoyment for Junior was being a StreetWise Newspaper vendor for the latter of his life.

Junior was preceded in death by his mother and father – Lucille and William McIntosh Sr.; Wife – Sandra Dixon-McIntosh; Three brothers – David Eichelberger, Aaron McIntosh, Tommie McIntosh; and one sister – Lana McIntosh.

Junior leaves to cherish his memories, his daughter - Tammie Dixon; One brother – Donley McIntosh; Six sisters – Bonita Adams (William preceded), Linda Griggs, Katrina McIntosh, Paula Scott (Michael), Shell McIntosh, and Patsy Campbell; the Brownlow family; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.
