

Willie Mae Ealy

September 5, 1928 - July 7, 2016

Willie Mae Hicks was born on September 5th, 1928 in Shubuta, Mississippi to Frank and Mollie Lofton Hicks. She was one of 14 children. This is where she grew up and went to school.

On March 20th, 1948, Willie Mae was united in marriage to Lorenzo Ealy and to this union 10 children were born. Two children, which were boys, died in childbirth.

Willie Mae was a very industrious and resourceful woman and mother. She was a very caring and giving woman, always working hard at making sure her family was well fed and happy. If you needed anything, she found a way to make sure you had it.

Willie Mae dedicated her life to Jehovah and symbolized her dedication through water baptism to become one of Jehovah's Witnesses on April 25th, 1965. Her love for Jehovah moved her to remain faithful for over 50 years. She never gave up in her fight for her faith. The ministry was her lifeline. She enjoyed teaching the truth to everyone she met. She taught all of her children about Jehovah.

On Thursday, July 7th, 2016, Willie Mae took her last breath as she fell asleep in death. She was preceded in death by her parents, all of her siblings, her husband, her youngest son, Charles Edward Ealy and two sons-in-law, Jimmie Phillips and Readell Taylor.

Willie Mae leaves to cherish her memories, five daughters, Josephine Phillips, Ellen Ealy, Elaine Ealy-Davis (Anthony), Jacqueline Ealy and Earline Taylor; two sons, Bobby Lee Ealy (Cindi) and Richard Ealy; thirteen grandchildren, Sheila (Harold), Michelle (Glenn), Bobby Lee Jr., Richard Jr. (Patrice), Shawn (Arika), Danielle, DeShanna, Anthony Jr., Stephanie, Kyle, Andre, Jacob and James; sixteen great grandchildren and a very special niece, LaTerra Hadnot; as well as a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
