

Mr. Willis James McCoy

December 6, 1963 - June 16, 2021

Willis James McCoy was born on December 6, 1963 in Baldwin, Mississippi, where he was raised by his grandmother who he referred to as, “Ma”.

Willis came to accept Christ in his life at the tender age of 7, where he attended church with his grandmother that carried over to adulthood. In 1974, Willis relocated to the Southside of Chicago.

Willis attended Wendell Phillips High School and met the apple of his eye, in 1979 and married September 22, 1990. To this union, two beautiful daughters joined to their union in 1982 and 1986.

Willis was an epitome of a hustler, utilizing his many talents that included being an award-winning fisherman, the “go-to-mechanic,” and all-around the Jack-of-all-Trades. Willis also helped execute the vision for Angel’s Transportation Services Inc. His favorite past-times were going fishing with family and friends, such as his mother, late stepfather, friends, grandsons, and son-in-Law. He also enjoyed cooking/barbecuing, working on his boat, cruising to the Bahamas and Mexico, and traveling to Mississippi to visit family.
