

Wilma Carol Gray

July 18, 1948 - November 14, 2016

Wilma Carol Gray was born July 18, 1948 to the union of Ivan C and Wilmont Daniels in Kankakee, Illinois.

A lifelong learner, Wilma graduated from Hyde Park High School, attended University of Chicago, graduated from Mundelein College and received her Masters Degree from Chicago State University.

From 1967 to 1988, Wilma worked at the Downtown Chicago branch of the United States Post Office. In 1990, she received her teaching certificate from Chicago State University and became a Chicago Public School teacher. She worked as a teacher at J.N. Thorp Elementary School from September 1995 until her retirement in June of 2016. She gained great satisfaction from teaching and tutored students and family member at the public library and in her home at the kitchen table.

Wilma loved to travel and has had long lasting memories from trips to Europe, Mexico and across the United States often taking different members of the family with her on her many adventures. She was one of the most influential people in our family and worked hard to make sure she could do what she could to help us all succeed.

Wilma was a very special person. Her generosity and love for her family was rarely matched. She had a strong opinion about most things, but her wisdom was always delivered with style. She will be truly missed and forever loved.

On November 14, 2016, Wilma passed away. She was preceded in death by her parents.

Wilma leaves to cherish her memories, her husband, Luke Gray; two children, Dennis Bush and Cydney Gray; two grandchildren, Selena Bush and Dennis "DJ" Bush; seven siblings, Ethel Daniels, Ivan D. Daniels, Paul Daniels, John Daniels, Miles Daniels, Alfrieda (Kenneth) Morris and Vance Ketchens; two aunts, Jean Morrow and Pauline Wills; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

“ I send my deepest sympathy to the entire Gray Family. Always remember the wonderful times that you spent with Wilma. Please find comfort in what the Bible says about the opportunity of seeing Wilma again under the very best of conditions right here on the earth: “He will swallow up death forever.” (Isaiah 25:8)

For more comfort please go to <http://bit.ly/1K38EFt> for "When Someone You Love Dies" Brochure.

Deborah - December 12, 2016 at 05:38 PM

“ To the Gray Family, I'm very sorry for your loss. May the "God of comfort" be there for you to help you get through this difficult time. 2 Corinthians 1:3,4.

Until these words of comfort help us are fulfilled: "If a man dies, can he live again? I will wait all the days of my compulsory service until my relief comes. You will call, and I will answer you. You will long for the work of your hands." Job 14:14,15. I hope these words from God's word brings the family comfort and support.
