

Wilma Talbot

February 23, 1943 - April 23, 2019

Wilma Talbot was born February 23, 1943, in Little Rock, Arkansas to the union of Bernice and Walter Hardin. She was one the oldest of 4 children that blessed that union.

At age 18, Wilma moved to Chicago, Illinois to make a better life for herself. She married Herbert Talbot and they had a son Steven and two daughters Vinita and Joyce. She loved being a wife and mother and took great pride in caring for her family.

Wilma began working at the post office in 1967, a job she enjoyed and retired from in 1992.

Wilma was active in a bowling league. She traveled the world bowling and had the trophies to prove her expertise. Her musical taste was Rhythm and Blues with her favorites being Al Green and The Queen of Soul, Aretha Franklin. No one could beat her at Bid Whist, you rise and fly, unless you were Wilma, she sat and won. She enjoyed crafting and specialized in embellishments on jeans. There was no bigger Bears fan, she would cheer loudly for “Her” team.

Wilma loved life and God. She joined Salem Baptist Church in 2005, and was an active member. She attended many classes including Sunday School Class. She enjoyed being a part of the church and was always in attendance until her health began to fail her.

On April 23, 2019, Wilma Talbot closed her eyes and rested from her labors. She was preceded in death by her brother William Campbell.

Wilma will be dearly missed by her loving and devoted children Steven (Donisha) Talbot, Vinita (Farron) Booker, and Joyce (William) McToy; mother Bernice Scott; father Walter Hardin; grandchildren Shantia Talbot, Robert McToy, Branden McToy, and Quinten McToy; great grandchildren Jamia McToy and Morgan McToy; siblings Joyce Ann Campbell, Herman S. Shorter, and Sheila Campbell; and a host of family and friends too numerous to mention.
